CITY COMMITTEE.

Democratic Stalwarts Wind Up the Affairs of the Campaign.

A called meeting of the City Democratic Committee was held last night in the Circuit Court-room. Chairman Lamb stated that he sincerely regretted that his absence from the city had not allowed him to attend the funeral of the late Henry F. Phillips: that he was much shocked by reading of his death in the newspapers, and could aswell as the resolutions passed by the Council bear testimony to the worth and character of the late committeeman. Mr. Lamb also stated that Mr. Phillips having held the office of treasurer, it would be in order to elect a new treasurer to hold what funds that may now remain until the spring campaign.

the half-past 9 o'clock Richmond and Alleghany train yesterday morning for a visit to the Gayton coal mines, at Gayton, Va. Among the party were coal dealers, railroad men, merchants, bankers, manufacturers, etc., and they expressed themselves as highly pleased with all they saw. There are two plants at the Gayton mines—one a mining plant, and one for manufacturing purposes. The coal is a semi-anthracite, and is mined with the most modern appliances. The full capacity of the mine is about two hundred and fifty tons daily. The manufacturing plant produces fifty to eighty tons a day. It is the utilization of fine coal pressed into lumps, and is the first plant of its kind in the United States. About two hundred men are engaged in both plants.

Many of the Richmond visitors went down into the mines. A lunch was served during the morning, and the party returned at 1:30 o'clock. Alleghany train yesterday morning for a

TIP-TOED DOWN STAIRS.

She left the house clad in a prettily-fitting dress of dark red, with an Astrakhan shoulder cape. A captivating little hat sat saucily on her head, and she tip-toed down until the sidewalk was reached. Only a short distance had been gone when she was met by a young man. This man she seemed to know, and after giving him a charming good morning, they went down town.

The same young man had gone to his employer Monday night and said:

"Won't you open the office for me to-morrow morning? I have some little business to attend to, and won't be done till late."

"Certainly," replied the employer, and the young man left the office for the night.

Did the couple go to the cathedral to a marriage? No! In the lirst place, there was no marriage eeremony that took place vesterday morning at that sacred edifice. They went quietly down Main to Seventh, and down that street to the Byrd-street station. The train was boarded, and at 7:32 they started for Washington.

A MARRIAGE CEREMONY.

At 4 o'clock yesterday the employer received a telegram, as did the mother of the young lady. The employer's telegram read: "Married this evening. Will report at my desk to-morrow as usual."

At 9:45 o'clock last night the Northern train thundered into the Union station, and a TIMES reporter was there to meet it. The couple came into the waiting-room, and the croom, recognizing the reporter, asked if his amployer was about the station. The resorter answered in the negative and was hen introduced to the bride. After hearty ongratulations the writer asked:

"Did you have an enjoyable journey?"
"Splendid." replied the bride, "although we were in Washington but a short time."
"How will you manage when you get ome?"

Well, they will just have to take us,

GREAT SALE OF LOTS

Wytheville Development Company, WYTHEVILLE,

DECEMBER 17 and 18, 1890. THREE HUNDRED desirable Business and Residence Lots will be offered for sale, adjoining the present town and lying along the main line of the Norfolk and Western Railroad, and around the Company's reserve for manufactories, through which a half-mille branch road is being built from the Norfolk and Western road. Along this branch road there

With these factories under way, and others reasonably sure in sight, a large and rapid increase of population is assured, and to meet the present demand for houses the Company isnow erecting a number of residences in this locality. A $50,000 HOTEL is now being built, and a second one, to cost the same amount, will be erected in the spring, to accommodate the increasing influx of summer visitors.

WYTHEVILLE is the county seat of Wythe county, which was awarded the Diploma, with $500 premium, at the Virginia Exposition, in 1888, in "Minerals and Woods." Its location at the point of intersection of Norfolk and Western and Virginia and Kentucky Railroad, work on which latter will begin within a few months, without a reasonable outby, puts it within easy distance of the rich coal fields of Tazewell county.

Sash, Door and Blind Factory; the Virginia Stove and Steel Range Foundry, Capital $125,000.

are now in course of construction a Woolen and Knitting Factory. Capital $50,000; Steam Brick Plant, Planing Mill;

MANUFACTURING SITES FREE.

The rapidity with which all lots put on the market at the Company's last sale were taken, and the satisfaction expressed and handsome profits realized to purchasers are guarantee that can be offered of the safe and remunorative character of investments in the above lots.
